

Contemporary and Vintage Jewels Shine at Il Ponte, Milan

The renowned Jewels Auction by Il Ponte auction house, an event eagerly awaited by both dealers and investors, will be held on 16 & 17 November in the halls of Palazzo Crivelli in the heart of Milan.

The auction is quite varied and ranges from precious stones "in satchet" to gems set in splendid rings. Bidders will be able to choose from about 1,000 lots whose origins range from the 1700s to the present, representing a cross-section of the Italian goldsmithing tradition.

The top lots will include five emerald-cut diamonds, ranging from 5 to 9 carats, which indubitably express the distinctive sign of ultimate class and elegance.

The auction will also feature stunning, timeless emeralds, sapphires and rubies, as well as natural pearls and corals, all set in vintage to contemporary jewellery masterpieces in which rich materials and fine workmanship are perfectly combined.

The iconic brands of international jewelry making, Cartier, Van Cleef & Arpels, Bulgari, Tiffany & Co and Buccellati, are well represented with various types of jewels, which are not just for connoisseurs and collectors but they speak to everyone who loves wealth, beauty and elegance.

Lot-Art had the pleasure to select for you some among the best gems of this exquisite sale: